

Association for Great Lakes Maritime History

Dr. Charles E. Feltner and Jeri Baron Feltner

AGLMH Conference Scholarship

This scholarship is offered annually by AGLMH to provide competitive awards of $250 to deserving students interested in Great Lakes maritime history. The Feltners dedicated their lives to the Great Lakes maritime as researchers, divers, authors, and mentors, with interests ranging from historic vessel construction and shipwrecks to lighthouses and museums. Jeri remains active in the community. Chuck passed away in 2019.

Criteria:

- Applications will be solicited from students currently enrolled in a college or university program (undergraduate or graduate level) who have a professional interest in the Great Lakes maritime.
- Annual awards of $250 will be given to one or two individuals per conference. [Only one award per institution.]

Application Details:

- Applications to the award will include a 500 word letter of introduction that describes current direction of studies and interest in Great Lakes history, and a CV or resume. Suggested but not required, the application could include a letter of recommendation, ideally from an adviser or instructor.
- Material should be emailed to awards@AGLMH.net by May 15 of the conference year.
- Applications will be reviewed in June by a committee, and the ranking of applications will be forwarded to committee chair to collate and nominate for approval by July 1. Chair will notify the student(s) and confirm their participation. In the event of a withdrawal, the award may be given to the next favorable applicant.

Award Details:

- Award will include complimentary admission to the Reception, Annual Meeting, Conference, Awards Dinner, and associated activities, including daytime food and beverages.
- Award is not intended to cover all conference costs. The monetary award will be given to the recipient at the conclusion of the conference, assuming full participation in the Meeting and Conference.
